SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

UNITED STATES

MICHAEL J. MITROW, JR.,

Defendant.

S3 13 Cr. 633 (PAE)

ORDER

PAUL A. ENGELMAYER, District Judge:

At today's change-of-plea hearing, defendant Michael Mitrow pled guilty to Counts Three and Eight of the Superseding Indictment. Pursuant to the parties' signed plea agreement, the Court will hold a Fatico hearing to determine the loss amount. At today's hearing, the Court engaged in a lengthy colloquy with counsel as to the scheduling and expected scope of the Fatico hearing.

As discussed, counsel in this case are directed to reserve the weeks of March 30, 2015, and April 6, 2015, for such a hearing. As mentioned earlier today, the Court currently has a trial scheduled for March 30, 2015, which is anticipated to last 1–2 weeks. If that case ultimately proceeds to trial, the Court will issue an Order, in this case, adjourning the Fatico hearing, likely until June 2015. In the interim, counsel are, of course, at liberty to call Chambers periodically to inquire about the status of the case that is currently scheduled for trial on March 30, 2015.

SO ORDERED.
